Safety & Responsibility

I understand that this event, like other adventures can be dangerous. I further understand that my own safety and the safety of others in my party is my own responsibility. I understand that the event coordinator cannot and has not made any provisions to assure my safety at the event or while en route to or from the event. Money paid in association with this event is simply my share of the camping fees and is not an event entry fee. This fee only provides for camping space. I assume all risk of injury and death resulting from participation in this event and agree to hold the event coordinator(s) harmless and promise not to file lawsuit against them.
